THEATRE & ACADEMY

July 2017

Dear Local Business Owners and Friends:

Metropolitan Ballet Theatre (MBT) is a 501(c)(3) non-profit arts education organization that provides training for dancers and choreographers as well as professional-level performances such as The Nutcracker to the Montgomery County community. MBT also offers outreach programs that bring classes and performances to those who may not otherwise have the means to enjoy such events. We will celebrate our 29th annual production of The Nutcracker in December and we excited to add the inaugural production of The Nutcracker Suite this season!

We are proud to offer the most affordable trip to a professional-quality The Nutcracker in Montgomery County. To keep ticket prices accessible to the greater community, we raise funds for our productions by placing advertising for companies like yours in our playbills, and by accepting donations from 'Friends of MBT'. We invite you to support our efforts with a sponsorship of The Nutcracker season, and/or by placing an ad in the playbill for our entire production season. The season includes ten performances of The Nutcracker in December, four performances of The Nutcracker Suite in December, and four performances of a Spring Production (2015 was Sleeping Beauty, 2016 was the original Becoming Sugar Plum; 2017 was Cinderella!). Your ad will reach over 7000 patrons this year, plus press and donors and visitors to MBT's Academy, and you will have the opportunity to change your ad before the Spring playbill is printed.

MBT is supported in part by the Maryland State Arts Council and the Arts and Humanities Council of Montgomery County. Individual donors, corporate donors and fundraising activities are also a part of sustaining MBT's high-quality programs. With generous contributions from organizations and individuals like you, we will be able to continue to offer professional level training and public performances, community outreach programs and financial aid. Proceeds from ad sales directly support our performances and programming. Please visit www.mbtdance.org to find out more about our organization.

Please complete the enclosed form and return to MBT at the address below, or email to contact@mbtdance.org. MBT greatly appreciates your support!

Sincerely,

Paula Ross

Additional Support for MBT Productions

Metropolitan Ballet Theatre, Inc. is a non-profit, arts education organization, organized under Maryland law and has tax-exempt status under section (501)(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Service Code.

Ballet, by its very nature, is a costly art form. Ticket sales cover only a portion of expenses to produce professional performances. MBT tries very hard to keep the performing arts affordable to families, to keep tuition affordable, and to offer financial aid when appropriate. MBT is dependent on donations from individuals and businesses to support productions, outreach and service to the community, and educational programming. As we celebrate our 29th season, please consider that a gift to Metropolitan Ballet Theatre is an investment in a local treasure. Donations go directly to MBT's educational academy programs, company performances and community outreach.

Workplace Giving

MBT is a member of:

The Combined Federal Campaign #81955

The Maryland Charity Campaign for State Employees and Retirees # 2623.

Employer match- Ask your employer if they will generously match your contribution to MBT. We can provide you with any information your employer might need.
